State Librarian POISON FATAL TO CHARLES WUEST

Practically Certain Coroner Will Find His Death Was Due to Carbolic Acid he Took.

WHAT AUTOPSY SHOWED

Man Who Attempted Suicide Thursday Evening Dies Sunday Afternoon—Inquest Today.

Charles Wuest, 46 years old, the Broad Ripple truck gardner, who was shot by Mart Clevenger, last Thursday evening after he had taken carbolic acid, died Sunday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at the Grand hotel. Complications arose, believed to have been caused by the carbolic poisoning, and Wuest gradually became worse until it was seen Sunday morning that death was only a matter of a few hours.

An autopsy was held and it was found that the poison had brought on a form of Bright's disease. Coroner Barnett was called and assisted at the autopsy, but his inquest proper was not conducted until this afternoon. t is practically certain the verdict will be that death was caused by poison. It is understood that the wound caused by the shot was not even considered dangerous.

The remains were taken to the Clevenger residence in East Fifth street. It was there that Wuest took the poison after his wife refused to return home with him. Mrs.
Wuest was at his bedside almost constantly after he was removed to Grand hotel. He is survived by his widow and three children.

The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

WILL HOLD REUNION AT CINCINNATI ZOO

Christian Sundays Schools of Rushville and Winchester, Ky. To Commerate Contest

WHICH WAS HELD A YEAR AGO

The Main Street Christian church
Sunday schoo is planning on running an excursion to Cincinnati on Tuesday, June 8 when a joint reunion
will be held with the Winchester, Ky.
Sunday school. The reunion, which will be held in commemoration of the contest staged one year ago, will be held at the Cincinnati zoo. The transportation committee has secured a special train over the C. H. & D with a fare of $1.25 for the round trip and it is expected that several hundred will make the trip. The Winchester Sunday school will also go to Cincinnati on a special train.
The contest with Winchester created great interest and Rushville and Winchester became closely related.
Because of this the reunion was planned at a central point and Cincinnati was named.

SMALL BLAZE.

The house owned by J. T. Ar-Arbuckle, at 137 South Harrison street, was slightly damaged by fire
this afternoon when the roof caught fire from a spark. The fire department was called and the blaze was extinguished with chemicals. A Greek pop corn vender resides in the house.

RAID ENGLISH COAST

Zeppelin Which Attacks English
Towns is Damaged by Aircraft.

(By United Press.)

London, May 17.—Eight Spanish
aviators attacked and seriously damaged the Zeppelin which dropped twenty bombs, injuring three persons and doing slight property damage, in a midnight raid on English coast towns. The battle was high above the clouds. The Zeppelin made off slowly, its tail hanging downward,
after an aeroplane had dropped a bomb through it. The bombs were dropped at Ramsgate. The dirigible passed over Margate and Dover without throwing an explosive.

HEALTH SURVEY POSTPONED WEEK

City's Part in Clean-up Week Delayed by Arrival of Stone And Health Board Held Up

PREPARING FOR OILING

The city did not get to complete its part of the clean up movement
last week. A carload of stone arrived here late in the week and was necessary to place the stone on the streets in preparation for the oiling.
Because of this the city teams were used in hauling the stone and only a small portion of the city was gone
over by the wagons in hauling away
the trash. The city will continue the work of cleaning this week and it is expected that at least two more days will be required to go over the entire city. Because the city was delayed in the cleaning, the health department will not make the survey until next week.

POLICE ASKED TO SEARCH FOR BOY

Louis G. Stephen, Age Twelve Years, Missing From His Home Here Since Last Friday.

TRUANCY AT SCHOOL CAUSE

Chief of Police Rosenerance today sent out notices to the police of surrounding cities asking them to watch for a runaway Rushville boy, Louis G. Stephen, age twelve and a half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stephen, 638 West Eighth street. The boy disappeared from home last Friday evening and has not been heard from since. He played truant from school last Wednesday afternoon and went to the high school track and field meet at the fair ground. His parents did not learn that he had not been at school until Friday afternoon. The boy knew his parents had found out the truth, and evidently fearing punish-

The boy is described as follows:
light hair, double crown on head,
scar on right side of his head half way between ears and crown, blue eyes, fair complexion; wore light brown soft hat, band darker than hat, brown sweater rather large for him, blue checked waist, mingled gray knee pants, black shoes and stockings.

Bert Ormes today took possession of the City transfer and busses,
having purchased them from John Davis.

DIAPASONS HOLD A FINE MEETING

Twelfth Annual Session at Christian Church Sunday Afternoon
Pronounced one of Best.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Dr. D. I. Lambert, Who Never Attended One Before, Gives His Impressions as First Visitor.

Probably the most enthusiastic of the twelve annual meetings of the Diapason singing class of Rush
county was the one held yesterday afternoon at the Main Street Christian church. The crowd was large and the class entered into the singing of the old-time music with more vim and spirit than in years. The annual meeting of the Diapasons is coming to be an event in the annals of Rush county that is looked forward to with much interest each year as the month of May rolls around.

At the conclusion of the singing
yesterday, new officers were elected for the year. Green Thompson of Glenwood was chosen president and Dave McKee of Connersville vice-president. W. L. King was continued as secretary-treasurer and John L. Spurrier of this city was continued as precentor. The Rev. C. M.
Yocum was elected chaplain.

The program was carried out in full with the exception of the late Williams family quintet. Some of the members of the quartet were indisposed and unable to be present. It was also hoped that the class
might come here from the Hargrove family, but only a few of them were able to attend. Theophilus Hargrove, of Greenfield, however, was here and assisted Mr. Spurrier in leading the music. Lon Tribbey, assistant precentor, could not come on account of ill health.

The program was opened with a prayed by the Rev. D. I. Lambert and the Rev. Mr. Yocum read one of the Psalms. Dave McKee, of Connersville who always furnishes the fun for the Diapasons, read some of his original poetry. There was also a violin duet by Janet Dean and Mary Louise Wyatt.

It was the first time that the D. I.
Lambert ever heard anything of the sort and it gripped him so that he arose during the time for short talks and expressed his sentiments and gave his impressions as a person who had never attended before.

There was a splendid representative class present, which made the singing the best it has been in years.
There were five deaths reported
since the last meeting.

The class voted to address a letter of condolence to Thomas J.
Humes, because of his illness. Mr.
Humes has always been a faithful
meber of the class, many expressions of regret and sympathy because of his sickness were heard.

TRANSYLVANIA IS SAFE

Vessel Past Due Arrives at Greenock, Scotland Today.

(By United Press.)

Glasgow, May 17.—The Anchor
liner Transylvania, carrying 879 passengers, from New York, arrived at Greenock, nine miles from here early today. She took the northern route for her voyage to Liverpool to avoid the German submarines.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
James T. Watson of West First street, was buried this afternoon in East Hill cemetery.

WASTE OF WAR REALIZED HERE

In Peace Day Message, Dr. D. I.
Lambert Calls Attention to Price
United States Has Paid

APPALLED BY EUROPEAN WAR

Failure to Heed God's Program, Sowing Seeds of Peace, is Responsible For The Conflict

Dr. D. Ira Lambert gave a Peace
Day, Message at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning,
commenting on the war in Europe at some length. He chose for his text
"He shall speak unto the nations,"
from Zachariah, 9:10.

"The old prophet looks out upon
the desolations of war," he said,
"and realizes nothing but waste and destruction. The cities have been swept away and ruin is on every hand. So it has been throughout all the ages of man. In this land of peace we realize the awful waste because of war. Four hundred thousand dollars a day expended for the maintaing of our navy alone
in order that we may have peace.
Every second dollar in the world has been appropriated, so they tell us, for the use of war. The great efforts of man in the building of cities, in the accumulation of wealth, is reduced to zero by the generation which follows.

"But far greater is the waste of human life. Twelve thousand acres of young men are in the southland
alone, brought down in early manhood by the ravages of our own civil war. Four million men, mostly young men, paid the price of the Napoleonic wars a hundred years ago. If their skulls were piled in one great monument, as they were
upon the bloody field of Novara,
they would make a pile thirty times
as high as our own Washington monument.

"But the greatest disaster often comes in the years which follow.
Our own southland still feels the loss of the best blood which it had by the ravages of the civil war. We stand appalled in the face of the awful conflict of today. And we do not wonder that a soldier the other day came to his chaplain and said:
'If you believe in prayer, pray that I may forget the awful scenes I have witnessed or I shall go raving mad.' Someone asked a leading author of fashions in Paris what the fashionable color of this season would be
and the reply was that the fashionable color for Europe would be black. But the prophet looks forward and sees the glorious day of peace.

"Old men are sitting, for very age leaning upon their staffs, and the children are playing in the streets of Jerusalem and prosperity is on every hand. And he seeks the explanation of it all and finds it in the peace which has been sent upon the earth. A little later God declares,
'I am sowing the seeds of peace.'
That has been and is today God's program for the world.

"The awful scenes of history that have been enacted through warfare
have come because God's program has been disregarded—because we have failed to sow the seeds of peace. 'Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.' Europe today is reaping what it has sown. We shall be wise if we shall continue to sow the seeds of peace that shall bring a harvest of prosperity and joy ourselves and the world.

"The prophet not only declares God's plan for the peace of the world to be in all the efforts—the schemes of humanity to bring peace upon earth, but that it shall be

PORTUGAL NEARLY NORMAL

New Cabinet, Formed Aboard Battleship, Assumes Charge Today.

(By United Press.)

Lisbon, May 17.—After two days of anarchy and fierce rioting Portugal was nearly normal today. Dispatches reaching here said that the garrisons in Santarem and several other cities surrendered to the revolutionary forces at midnight. The new cabinet formed aboard a battleship last night assumed control of the government today. Joso Chagas, the new president, is enroute here
from Oporto.

KINSLEY TRIAL STARTS WEDNESDAY

Special Venire of Talesmen is Drawn Today For "Blind Tiger" Case in Circuit Court.

GUILTY IN POLICE COURT

A special venire of twelve men was ordered this morning for use in the trial of Andrew E. Kinsley, charged with the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor, which is expected to start Wednesday. The case against Kinsley has been postponed
several times and is expected to be tried this time. Kinsley was the custodian of the Eagles lodge and was charged under the "blind tiger" statute. He was found guilty in police court and the outcome of the trial in the circuit court is creating interest.

The special venire is as follows:
J. N. Northam, Jackson; O. T.
Lower, Walker; Alva T. Junken, Posey; Elmer W. Cadwell, Rush-
ville; John H. Wright, Jackson; F.
C. Buell, Rushville; E. A. Farthing,
Richland; Dora David, Jackson; E.
G. Jones, Jackson; Walter Crull,
Washington; Joseph Pike, Richland
and J. C. King, Anderson.

RECEIVES NOTE IN FRIENDLY WAY

Ambassador Gerard Reports to Washington That it Will Get Careful Consideration.

REPLY IN A VERY FEW DAYS

By John Edwin Nevin.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 17.—Germany received the Wilson protest against German submarine warfare as applied to merchant vessels in the most friendly way. Her foreign minister treated Ambassador Gerard with the utmost courtesy and consideration when he read the American position as set forth by the president. He promised that the note would have the most careful situation and that a reply would be made Tuesday or Wednesday.

Ambassador Gerard reported this to Secretary Bryan today. He emphasized the friendliness of his reception. Whether he intimated what he expected the outcome to be, Secretary Bryan did not say.

Unofficial intimations reached here
today that the German foreign office intends to expedite its preparation.
It is understood that copies of the president's note on submarine warfare are in the hands of the kaiser and his advisers.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Jeff Davis Younger and Susie Garnett.

IS NOT TAKING IT SERIOUSLY

Germany Will Endeavor to Show
America What Request to Abandon Submarine Warfare Means

A CRISIS IS NOT EXPECTED

Reply Will Draw Distinct Line Between Gul Flight and Lusitania Incidents.

(By United Press.)

Berlin, May 16, (Via The Hague)
—Germany's reply to the Bryan
note will draw a distinct line between the Gul Flight and the Lusitania incidents. It can be stated on the best authority that so far as the Gul Flight is concerned the reply will leave nothing to be desired by America. Every possible reparation will be offered in the hope of eliminating this incident.

Neither American citizens here or the German press expect the German reply will be of a nature to precipitate a crisis.

The most interesting fact available
is the obvious air of optimism apparently based on the belief that America has not yet but ultimately will get and give consideration to Germany's point of view.

The apparent lack of resentment
and the acceptance of America's pro-testation of friendship is reflected in the press and is coupled with regret that America does not recognize that Germany's submarine warfare against merchantmen is an act of self defense against England's starvation assault on German noncom-batants.

Abandonment by Germany of submarine warfare is not taken seriously here. Instead, Germany will endeavor to show America that the suggestion amounts to asking Germany to abandon her most effective weapon—one which may decide the ultimate issue for her.

The situation here so far as Americans are concerned is calm.
The opinion about the foreign office
that America without being unfriendly to Germany has been blind to the latitude allowed to the laws of self defense.

TO GIVE MUSICAL COMEDY WEDNESDAY

Miss Helen Scott's High School Music Class Will Present "Miss Bob White" at Auditorium.

FOR BENEFIT OF GYMNASIUM

"Miss Bob White," a musical comedy in 3 acts, will be presented by Miss Helen Scott's high school music class at the auditorium of the Graham Annex Wednesday evening
for the benefit of the gymnasium in the new building. The play is based on a bet two millionaires lost to an English duke, which involves two months of tramp life for the millionaires. Harry Schmalzel as "Tra Billion" and Dwight VanOsdol as "Van Million," in their search for food, add much comedy to the production. They finally reach the house of friend "Rod," which part is taken by Forest Jones. The complications furnish a lot of genuine fun.

Mary Louise Poe as "Bob White," Kathleen Hogsett as "Golden Rod"
and Marian Scholl as "Miss Autumn" add romance to their experiences. The choruses of Quaker maids, fox hunters colonial dames and A. B. C. girls lend a touch of the opera and adds much to the effectiveness of the production.

The seats will go on sale tomorrow morning at Hargrove & Mullin's.
Reserve seat checks are being sold by school children and may be exchanged for seats.

AUSTRIANS CROSS THE ITALIAN LINE

Unconfirmed Report in Rome Causes
Tense Excitement and Immediate Calling of Cabinet.

CROWD ABOUT ROYAL PALACE

(By United Press.)

Rome, May 17.—Rome was tense
with excitement today. An unconfirmed rumor said that an Austrian battalion had crossed the Italian frontier. The war office had no confirmation of the report. Premier Salandra is reported to have summoned the cabinet into an immediate session.

A band of Austrian raiders who crossed the Italian frontier were repulsed by a bayonet charge by Italian patrols, according to dispatches reaching here today.

Until an early hour today a crowd estimated at 100,000 surged about the royal palace, the war and foreign offices and the residence of Premier Salandra, cheering wildly for war. The official announcement that King Victor Emmanuel has refused to accept the resignation of Salandra from his cabinet was everywhere interpreted to mean that the king has sanctioned the war program.

He Has Proved it.
 The Democratic boss of Pennsylvania, A. Mitchell Palmer, who was an unsuccessful candidate for the senate last fall, is now passing into the "lame duck" class. And in passing, since he has been most favorably "remembered" by the president by being appointed a member of the federal court of claims, pauses to observe that the president will be renominated in spite of the fact the Baltimore platform declared for a single term.
 It is understood that Palmer has a letter from Wilson on this subject.

and that the President feels that the Baltimore convention merely committed the Democrats in Congress to action limiting the presidential incumbency to one term.
 Wilson's intellect and sophistry were never better displayed than in the making of such an argument.
 The Baltimore platform is by no means unintelligible. It says: "We favor a single presidential term and to that end urge the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution, making the President of the United States ineligible for re-election, and we pledge the candidate of this convention to this principle."
 On this platform Wilson was elected and the Democrats carried Congress. They have done nothing in Congress to bring about "the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution," and now, Wilson, by means of a letter to Palmer, seeks to avoid the principle to which the Baltimore platform says he is "pledged."
 However, discussion of the subject is interesting only as showing Democratic inconsistency; for, in a practical sense, the candidate of the Baltimore convention has already shown himself to be a one-term President.

While the American people will support the president in controversies with foreign countries—and he who will not does not deserve the name—there are those who do not feel obliged to support him in domestic economic matters when they know him to be wrong.

President Wilson's note to the German foreign office finally reached

Archaeological remains found in Indiana indicate that hundreds of years ago this region was inhabited by a people who had advanced in civilization much beyond the savage
 state.

Artificial mounds have been found in all parts of the state and in these mounds have been unearthed imple-

 many places fragments of broken pottery have been discovered buried deep in the artificial mounds of earth.

Current Comments

The Case of the Lusitania.

(St. Louis Globe Democrat.)

To what extent the German Government may be held accountable for the lives of the Americans destroyed in the sinking of the Lusitania is a matter for the United States Government to determine, after a calm consideration of the ascertained
 facts in the case and of our rights in the premises. In view of the advertised warnings published by authority of the German embassy, the individual warnings given to many passengers by means of anonymous
 telegrams, the statements attributed to diplomatic representatives of Germany in this country, there appears to be no doubt that the act was one of official premeditation and deliberate preparation. Undoubtedly, the German defense will be that the Americans taking passage on the Lusitania did so at their own risk,
 after they had been collectively and personally warned of the danger incurred. Another defense will be based upon the claim that the ship carried munitions of war. The latter would seem to be outside of the question,
 so far as this country is officially concerned, for the ship and its cargo and the lives of the passengers who were not Americans are subjects for the consideration of Great Britain; but the claim, is substantiated may have an indirect influence upon our own cause.

Yet, granting the force of these defenses, can it be said that Germany or any other nation, is justified
 in destroying the lives of Americans,
 men and women and children, who are peaceful passengers upon an unarmed? It is a grave question, and its gravity is increased by the fact that it is the culmination of a series of attacks upon American ships, less defensible in a legal scene,
 than the affairs of the Lusitania.
 But this is no time and no occasion for jiligoism. Profoundly as the people of this country are impressed by the horror of this disaster, we realize that the Lusitania is not another Maine; that the attack was not directed primarily against us, but against England, and that our government should be depended upon to exact such reparation as we may have the right to demand. The pity of it is that no reparation will restore the lives so ruthlessly, and, it seems to us, so needlessly destroyed.

TEMPERANCE TO HAVE BIG PLACE

Will be Most Important Topic of Discussion at State Sunday School Convention.

TO BE HELD IN LOGANSPORT

Sunday Schools Are Lining up as

One of Liquor's Greatest Foes

—Number Against it.

The 5,215 Sunday Scholols of Indiana are concentrating much of their strength in the general cause of temperance in this state, and behind these schools is a total of 612,- 788 officers, teachers and members.
 For some years an organized effort
 has been under way in the schools to push the educational work of temperance and at the coming state convention, to be held in Logansport, June 15-17, temperance will be about the dominating subject for discussion. Nearly 1,000 Indiana Sunday Schools are keeping regular temperance work, especially along the line of obtaining pledges and during the coming year still more attention will be concentrated in the effort to obtain 100,000 signatures
 to total abstinence pledges.

The Sunday Schools are lining up
 as one of the greatest foes of liquor, and to them can be traced much of the public sentiment that is throughout the state driving the saloons out of business. And it is proposed by the guiding minds of these schools
 to continue in the "dry" campaigns
 until the evils of intemperance are obliterated.

Many of the orators who will be on the Logansport program will give attention to the temperance question. The head-liner of the temperance speakers will be Prof. Chas.
 Scanlon, of Pittsburg, national superintendent of the temperance department in the Presbyterian church.

On one afternoon of the state convention there will be a special conference on temperance work, at which attention will be given to fur-therming county and township organization work throughout the State,
 and in one of the convention's general conferences the program will be given to temperance subjects. Prof.
 Scanlon will make two addresses
 during the convention.

POOR PITCHING COSTS ANOTHER

Rushers Drop Poorly Played Game to Hamilton Hoovens by Score of 7 to 5.

HITS LACKING IN PINCHES

New Pitcher Will be Secured Who Will Take Place of the Two Now Carried by Team.

Poor pitching on the part of the Rushville pitchers and in ability to hit good pitching in the pinches cost the Rushers the game yesterday with the Hamilton Hoovens. The score was 7 to 5. It was an uphill battle from the very start as far as Rushville was concerned.

As the game progressed it became more evident that Rushville was in the need of a good pitcher. Homille, who started the game for the Rushers, lasted 5 innings and Hamilton scored five runs off him. Vordenburg then went in and two more runs resulted. Rushville scored first in the fourth inning and twice in the eighth. One more run was pushed over in the ninth. Franz, a southpaw, was on the mound for Hamilton and the Rushers had all kind of trouble connecting safely.

Homille was hit hard, but Hamilton, did not score until the third inning. In this inning Franz was safe when Cordes dropped his fly. Arlingtonhaus singled over second base. Schirke struck out. Schuab doubled to right field, scoring Franz. Knodle hit safe to the infield and Arlingtonhaus scored. Hamrick was out. Hasselback to Sandman. Theobald was out, Homille to Sandman.

The Rushers played good ball only in spots. One good inning in the field would be followed by one bad inning and the team behind poor pitching naturally did not show much. Rushville bunched hits off Franz in the fourth and scored two runs. Franz seemed to lose confidence in this frame but came right back and fought the Rushers to a stand-still. In the eighth Rushville had a start toward sewing up the game but only scored two runs. Cordes led off with a double and scored when the left fielder dropped Rohe's drive. Schlenker was walked. Geyer lifted a long fly to left field and Rohe scored. Homille was out to right field and Vordenburg was safe on an error. With two on base Hasselback struck out, for his fourth time during the game. It was simply a case of good pitching for Hamilton against medium class and indifferent pitching for Rushville.

Pick Ups from the Diamond

No one hated the defeat any more than Manager Davidson and the club directors. Steps were taken last night to better conditions. Vordenburg and Homille were released and one good pitcher will be secured. It is believed one pitcher costing the price of two like Vordenburg and Homille will certainly please the fans.

It is planned to get a pitcher the calibre of Al Leake, who pitched here late last year. A pitcher without control makes the entire team look bad and with a man in the box that knows the game the rest of the team surely will look good. The directors are determined to have a winner and work in this direction has already started.

In addition to the pitcher a new right fielder in place of Geyer has been secured. The new outfielder is Bill Brientein. He formerly managed a team in the southern league and has been playing this season for the All-Pros at Cincinnati. When Rohe left this team to play with Rushville Brientein

wanted to come to and was taken on by Rushville.

Charles Todd, a local boy played right field for the Hoovens. Todd played a nice game. He got a three base hit his first time up and his other hit was a fluke. It took a bad bound and went over Schlenker's head when it hit a rough place on the diamond. Todd also accepted two chances in the field.

Jack England umpired a nice game. He had no trouble with the players and the fans were greatly pleased with his work. England should make good in the Indiana State league.

It was one, two, three for Rushville for three innings. Goodfellow was the first to get on base and he was hit by Franz.

The crowd was pretty slim but should improve when the fans are shown that Rushville intends to have a winner. As the team now stands with the addition to the outfield a new pitcher should produce the desired results.

Mrs. Ione Brown Gets Divorce And Marries Another Brown

Mrs. Ione Brown was married Saturday afternoon but failed to change her name. She married Charles O. Brown. Mrs. Brown was granted a divorce from Clifton Brown this term of court by Judge Sparks and paid the costs Saturday just before becoming the wife of Charles Brown. The divorce decree was not entered until the costs were paid and this was done just a short time before she appeared with Charles O. Brown. Her second husband is said to be no relation to her first. The marriage issued since April 28 and was the first granted during the month of May.

STAGE WORK IS NOT HELP TO HIM

New York Fight Fans Rarely Mention Willard's Name And he is Not Popular

MUST SOON FIGHT AGAIN

Is Not a Howling Success Behind Footlights—no One in Sight Who Can Whip Him.

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)
New York, May 17.—As far as New York is concerned Jess Willard has disappeared from the spotlight. Rarely is his name mentioned by the general public and even the fight fans have many other topics to argue about than the man who humbled the giant black man at Havana.

No where in fight circles, is heard the heated discussions over his merits and defects as was the situation some years back when champions of other days held the limelight. Willard is even creating less discussion than did Johnson when he won the title from Jefferies. Local ring stars are furnishing more excitement than the champion heavyweight.

How much Jess' stage work has dampened his popularity is impossible to calculate, but not a few fight bugs would rather see the giant cowboy in the ring than behind the footlights. Comparatively few people have seen Jess in action and that is what the followers of the fistie sport desire above everything else. Even if they cannot see him in action they like to read about him.

There is not much meat in the despatches about Willard for the ring side followers. No one would deny the champ his just share of the little iron men, for his feat in defeating Johnson is worthy of a substantial reward. But between one night stands the big white champ might take a night off now and then and display his abilities to a fight hungry public.

And perhaps the unpopularity of Willard as a stage favorite will force him into the ring again sooner than he expected. There is little doubt that Willard is not making a howling success of his circus stunt on the footboards. He is not as well adapted to that kind of pastime as some former boxer-actors were. And if press reports can be credited Jess himself cares little for the glare of the footlights. He wants the limelight but the reflection bores him.

A return to the ring would hardly endanger Jess' newly won title. No one is within several years of besting him in a fistie argument. At least not from surface appearance. Some one may develop as rapidly as Jess himself did and humble the western fighting king, but the chance of this occurring is remote. Jess had been plugging at the boxing game for four or five years before he accomplished the "white hope" dream of the ring-side sports.

The champion is expected to fight about every second week. The public, thinks of him as a fighting man and to hold the affection of the fight fans he must fulfil their expectations. That attitude accounted for Jefferies great popularity. Jefferies wanted to fight every man big enough to stand up to him. Stage work should be a by product of a champions real work.

MASONS GATHER.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 17.—With all the pomp of Masonry the Golden Jubilee of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite in Indiana, which will continue for a number of days, started today. Classes in Masonry for the past half century will hold reunions throughout the week. At the mammoth coliseum at the state fair ground probably the largest banquet ever served in Indiana will be attended by 5,000 Masons. Many degrees will be conferred at the jubilee reunion. Masons of national note are expected here.

A Simple Constipation Remedy—Try It

For quick, positive relief from constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, inactive liver, bad breath, and all the ills that follow them nothing as yet has been found to quite equal that old, time-tried compound of may-apple root, aloes and jalap.

Recognized as one of the standard remedies, physicians daily prescribe it, many preferring it to all others, and especially calomel. They like it because, being purely vegetable, it's not nearly as harsh as calomel; it never gripes; is never followed by any of the dangerous after-effects that so often result from the use of calomel.

This standard remedy, ready-prepared, may now be had under the name of Santalax Laxative Tablets. Be sure you get the original Santalax Laxatives, put up in the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. In this form it is much more convenient and easier to take than in the old-fashioned powder or capsule form—cheaper, too; a 10c box of Santalax should last one several weeks. A physician's sample package (4 doses) free to any one answering this advertisement. The Santalax Remedies Co., 801 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CONDUCTS HARD FIGHT ON DOPES

New York is Slowly But Surely Getting Best of Users of Drugs—Passes New Laws.

VICTIMS SENT TO A FARM

Police Department Doing Effective Work in Rounding Up Violators—Work Explained.

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK.

New York, May 17.—In an endeavor to make New York one of the most healthful cities in the United States, Father Knickerbocker is conducting a finish fight on the drug fiends within his gates. And to get at the root of the evil which is slowly sapping the strength of some of its weak willed citizens the city has delegated the work of stamping out this deadly habit to the Police Department.

Aided by laws, both state and national, the Police officials who have this special work in charge are making big strides toward ridding the city of the users of drugs by arresting them and putting them in hospitals for treatment. The Harrison law, passed by the last Congress has been a big help in catching "runners" of cocaine and heroin who formerly could pass unmolested from one state to another with big quantities of "dope." Under the new law this is prohibited and while it does not assist the New York police department in apprehending people outside of the city it makes the work of the "runners" more dangerous. Before the Harrison law became effective much of the drugs used in New York City were bought in Newark and Philadelphia and conveyed into New York by automobile or even by a man carrying a suitcase on a train.

And the Block bill, passed by the Albany legislature, has materially aided the police in putting the sellers of "coke" and "snow" behind prison bars. A bill recently signed by Gov. Whitman will allow magistrates to send victims of drugs to a state farm, after release from city hospitals, where they can get well and recover their strength and manhood. For, when a man is addicted to the use of cocaine the treatment he receives in a hospital is only part of the fight he has to make to recover himself entirely. Drug users are usually despondent and easily depressed and as soon as some misfortune overtakes them they are liable to resort to a sniff of cocaine to brace them up.

The record of the police department in a little over a year shows that results are being obtained. In 1913 only about 500 arrests were made for this offense. But in 1914 over 2000 people were picked up by the police and plain clothesmen and so far this year they have been catching them at the rate of 2500 a year.

A prominent police official, in

Congested Kidneys Relieved in Rushville

Tells, in Open Letter, How This Result Was Accomplished.

Mr. Jacob Dunwoody of 603 West Ninth street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Some few months ago I noticed my kidneys were not acting properly. They were off in action and bothered me a great deal at night. I would have to get up frequently. I suffered with the backache continually and could not find relief. At last I decided to try Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription. Others had told me that they would give me quick relief. I got a box and after taking only a few I noticed an improvement. My kidneys have not given me a bit of trouble now for a long time and the backache has left me entirely. Others will find quick relief in Lloyd's, I am sure."

speaking of the crusade against the drug evil, said recently that he is convinced the police department is gradually stamping out the habit, for it is getting harder and harder to find people addicted to the use of drugs. This is because a majority of the worse type of drug fiends are now in hospitals and city institutions receiving treatment.

This police officer explained how they worked to catch drug fiends. When a street peddler, the man who sells the drug to the victims, is caught that cuts off all his customers. Unless they can establish new "connections" within forty-eight hours they must appeal for help, as they can not stand the strain of being without drugs. And when a big wholesaler of drugs is captured that cuts off the supply of a great many street peddlers, which in turn deprives all the patrons of these street men of cocaine and heroin. And it is the sellers of drugs the police are particularly anxious to catch for they can put them in jail if the evidence is sufficiently strong. When a drug fiend is caught the police treat him as a sick person, for they know it is impossible for him to break himself of the habit.

But in many cases it is extremely difficult to obtain evidence that will hold in a court of law. This is because of the shrewd methods used by the street peddlers in selling their illegal wares. A drug fiend will pay the peddler the money and then will receive instructions to walk half a block down the street and pick up a cigarette box lying in the gutter. In the box the victim finds a "deck" of cocaine. Another way practiced to evade the law is for a peddler to tell the buyer of the drug to walk down the street until he sees a girl with a muff. When he passes the girl she slips him a little paper package from inside her muff and for a few hours the victim is happy. As soon as the effect of the "dope" wears off he becomes dull and depressed again and the craving for more drives him to the peddler.

If the drug fiend has no money he is made desperate and is forced to steal to obtain funds for the dope. This, the police department believes, accounts for most of the petty robberies that occur all over the city. If the use of deadly drugs can be stopped, or practically eliminated, it is thought petty crime will be lessened by fifty per cent.

ACT QUICKLY

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger.

In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

G. Priest, 223 West Third street, Plenty of evidence of their worth. Rushville, says: "For several years I had kidney trouble, which came on by spells. The complaint started with a dull pain just over my kidneys, then I became weak and dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and were so highly recommended that I got a supply at Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store. They proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever tried and in a short time, my kidneys were normal."

(Statement given June 13, 1907.)

Over five years later, Mr. Priest said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills when in need of a kidney tonic and the results are always satisfactory." Price 50c. at all dealers. OBITUARY.

Edith B. Smith, eldest daughter of W. H. and Cora A. McMillin was born in Union township, Rush county, July 12th, 1886.

Her childhood days and youth were spent in the immediate vicinity of her birth, receiving her schooling in the public schools at Ging Station. As a child she possessed a loving disposition, making many warm friends among her playmates and teachers. At the age of thirteen she confessed her faith in the Savior, uniting with the Christian church at Plum Creek.

On December 28th, 1904 she was united in marriage to Walter E. Smith, with whom she removed to Rushville, the place selected by the new couple for their temporal home. This union has been a successful one, each remaining true and faithful to the other until separated by the Great Reaper.

Upon her removal to Rushville, she transferred her church membership to the Main Street Christian church.

Edith, being deprived of the most sublime privilege in this world, that of being the mother of a little one of her own flesh and blood, yet she was truly a mother to any and all of the little ones with whom it was her privilege to come in contact. Indeed she possessed the characteristic of mother love developed to a degree far above the average. Rarely was she seen, if at all possible, except in charge of some little child. She certainly obeyed the precepts of the blessed Master—"Suffer the little children and forbid them not to come unto Me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Of course, she was not perfect. There has never been but One such, but it does seem that she was capable more than the ordinary person of looking upon the bright side of life.

Her greatest happiness seemed to be achieved in doing something for others and helping them to enjoy more of the good things of this world.

During her last illness everything possible from kind hands, loving hearts and medical skill, was rendered, but the Grim Reaper had made his advent and about ten o'clock p. m. Monday, April 12th, her spirit took its flight. "Leaving its outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

This is a forcible reminder to us that the Death Angel is no respecter of persons. Edith, the very picture of health and just in the bloom of life, and yet in less than a fortnight she had passed into the Great Beyond.

Now as we meditate upon this beautiful life that has faded without scarcely any warning, it gives such deep heart-aches and sorrow and sadness, but may we not look through this deep vale of tears and glean a message to the loved ones left behind: Methinks I can see Edith over there on the golden shore, standing at the wharf with outstretched arms and hear her sweet voice calling to husband, parents, sisters and all of the vast host of her relatives and friends, telling them to so live that when their summons comes to cross the Great Divide, they may be able to board the old ship of Zion and land safely in the harbor, there to meet her in a final embrace for a grand family reunion, not for a single day but for all eternity.

How sublime to contemplate such a meeting as that and how forcibly should the call to duty present itself to each of us now while it is called today.

Now we see through a glass dimly, but then face to face, now we know only in part, but then we shall know even as also we are known.

Thou com'st not from the hush and shadow

To meet us, but to thee we come; With thee we never can be strangers. And where thou art must still be home.

BUTLER SPEAKS AT BALTIMORE

Secretary of Indiana Board of Charities Addresses National Conference of Charities

URGES SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

Declares That One Out of Every 500 Hundred Were Feeble-minded And Gives Interesting Statistics

(By United Press.) Baltimore, Md., May 17.—Saying the most conservative estimates place the ratio of feeble-minded in this country at one to every five hundred persons, Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Indiana board of state charities today concluded that 200,000 persons feeble-minded are responsible for an overwhelming proportion of the crime and vice in America. He asked that scientific research be brought to bear on the problem of the feeble-minded that menace may be handled with greater knowledge and skill. He spoke this morning before the National Conference of Charities.

Some of the vices and crimes with which the feeble-minded have to do were outlined as follows:—

"The mental defects enter largely into the problem of commercialized vice, being probably the most important individual cause of the great evil. Many competent judges estimate that fifty persons of the prostitutes are mentally abnormal.

"Of 374 men examined at the Indiana State prison, 90 or 24 percent gave a personal history of mental defect and 111 or 29 percent had feeble-mindedness in the family history.

"Some say that from seventy to ninety percent of prisoners are feeble-minded.

"Feeble-mindedness is a prominent factor in pauperism. In Indiana 26.9 percent of the poor asylums population is classed as feeble-minded, in Missouri fifty percent.

"The feeble-minded boy or girl unrestrained in a community particularly in a town, threatens the home. A single feeble-minded girl among a group of young boys becomes a plague spot, the consequences of which are frightful. The spread of venereal disease by mental defectives is well known."

Mr. Butler emphasized that feeble-mindedness is inherited. "For example" he said "there are two children in the School for Feeble-Minded Youth at Fort Wayne, members of a degenerate family whose history is one of crime and immorality, alcoholism, disease, mental defectiveness, illegitimacy and pauperism. We have information more or less extensive regarding 477 members of this family, representing seven generations."

Concerning the prevalence of feeble-mindedness among prostitutes, Mr. Butler said—"Of three hundred prostitutes treated on in a recent report fifty-one were feeble-minded. All doubtful cases were reported as normal. Not more than six of the entire number seemed to have really good minds.

"It is highly probable that at least 50 percent of the inmates of our almshouses are feeble-minded. One study of the mentality of truant shows upwards of 80 percent of them feeble-minded. Many different studies show from 46 to 89 percent of reformatory inmates to be feeble-minded. If these statements should be taken at only half their value, they still show a condition important enough to need action." Mr. Butler concluded by saying:—

"These things we believe. The evidence gathered shows they are probably understated. They serve as a basis for our work. They offer a just cause for our appeal to the public. But of the highest importance is more facts, greater knowledge, scientific research. With a modification of emphasis this is as true of the insane and epileptic as of the feeble-minded.

"When we view the number of the feeble-minded, their fecundity, their lack of control, the menace they are, the degradation they cause the degen-

BIG REDUCTION IN FIRE LOSSES

Total Damage in State For First Four Months $1,873,353 as Against $2,868,156.

FOR SAME PERIOD IN 1914

Even Under These Circumstances Number of Alarms is in Excess. of Those in 1914.

Figures compiled in the State Fire Marshal's department for four months of the present year show a greatly reduced fire loss in comparison with the loss during a similar period of 1914. Up to May 1st the Indiana fire loss was $1,873,353, as against $2,868,156 for the first four months of last year. The number of alarms for 1915 is slightly in excess of that of 1914, the reports showing 2,909 this year and 2,781 in 1914.

The present year has not been marked by extensive and costly conflagrations as was the first quarter of 1914. An automobile factory fire in Indianapolis, entailing $100,000 loss, was the only large fire in the state. The great majority of fires were blazes caused by sparks from engines or chimneys and the losses were nominal.

The January losses in Indiana proved to be particularly small this year, the figures showing the total loss $336,789, being approximately $500,000 less than in January of 1914.

The total loss in Indiana in 1914 was almost $8,000,000, a mark which it is hoped the state will not again equal. The following table for one-third of the present year indicates the hope will not be a vain one:

	No. Losses	Loss
January	611	$336,789
February	647	437,381
March	837	488,256
April	814	610,927
Total	2,909	$1,873,353

eracy the perpetuate, the suffering the misery and crime they spread—these are the burdens we must bear. We cannot escape. We should bear it right. We need more strength, more wisdom, more help, more light.

(By United Press.) New York, May 17.—President Wilson, accompanied by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, his private secretary Joseph Tumulty and other Washington officials left the President's yacht Mayflower, at 8:30 this morning to review a land parade. The Mayflower arrived at New York yesterday. This is the first event in the big naval celebration scheduled for the next two days.

On the reviewing stand, before the Public Library on Fifth avenue, the President was met by Mayor Mitchell and other city officials. After reviewing the officers and jacksies of the Atlantic fleet the Presidential party returned to the Mayflower. At 3:30 this afternoon the Mayflower made a tour of the fleet at anchor in the Hudson river.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock, the President, will dine on board the battleship Wyoming, with Secretary Daniels and the other Cabinet members. Mr. Tumulty, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Admiral Fletcher, commanding the fleet; commanders of the four divisions, seventeen captains of battleships, Rear Admiral Usher, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy yard, and other naval officers.

At 8:30 o'clock, the big water carnival in connection with fleet festivities, will be held in the North River. The Mayflower is anchored at 72d street, and the water carnival, "fleet" made up of hundreds of floats and pleasure craft, will assemble at 125th street and pass down the river beside the fleet until it reaches the Mayflower, where it will turn back up the river, passing again beside the battleships. The searchlight display during the carnival promises to be wonderful.

Tomorrow the President will review the entire fleet as it passes out to sea. Then the Mayflower will return to Washington.

Selling Is MORE than Trading Stock for Money!

Selling is part of the scheme of business. Most anyone can sell once, but selling so you can create permanent customers is selling successfully. That is why we carry the large stock of buggies we have on our sample floor for prospective customers or purchasers to make their selections from. They don't have to take something they don't want, as we carry every style of buggy that there is a demand for. Then after the customer has made his selection from our stock we tell him exactly what the buggy is and it has to be just as we represent it or we make it that way. The customer takes no chances. He is sure to get just what he pays for. ONE sale reduces itself to a confidence game unless the buyer is perfectly satisfied. Satisfaction sends a customer away with a smile that won't come off. That is why our buggy business has grown. We have found out how to hold customers after we get them and every satisfied customer is bound to bring a new customer sooner or later. Right now our stock of buggies is complete and if you are needing a buggy come in and make your selection. We have the style you want and we would be glad to have you for one of our satisfied customers. We know you will be glad when you give us your vehicle business, so do it now.

loving. It takes mutual love to make a happy home. Outward conditions are largely a reflection of inner conditions. The young woman who would make an ideal life companion, loves her friends and inspires them with a love for herself.

"Third. She must be capable as a home-maker. A man can build a house; he cannot make a home. It takes a woman's touch, a woman's taste, a woman's grace to make a home. The worthy young man thinks of his ideal, as reigning within his home; and he wants a well-kept home. This does not mean that she shall not be interested in many things outside of the home. Woman's sphere is broadening, as she is rising with the progress of Christianity. In many states she is now recognized as a citizen, and no longer in the class of incapables of undersirables, on election day. She is privileged to receive the same education that the young man receives. Every honorable employment is open to her. But the home is woman's peculiar sphere. If she fails there, she is a failure, so far as a worthy man's ideal is concerned. Music, literary culture, ability to cook, and to sew, many accomplishments and attainments add to a woman's skill as a home-maker, while cleanliness and refinement are recognized in the very atmosphere of the home. If a woman's club helps in the understanding and solving of home problems, let her be grateful for the club. If it interferes, let the club be sacrificed, while she does her best for the home. A woman's beauty and a woman's love are to exert their greatest charm within the sacred walls of her own home.

homes; facts that explain why God gave us the marriage covenant. But when a worthy young man fixes his choice on a certain definite young woman, whom he is willing to exalt in his life, above every other, he uses his conscience, his reason, his judgment, as well as his eyes and his emotions. She must measure up to a certain standard, be the embodiment of certain ideals. What are some of the things that a worthy young man counts essential in the young woman who is to be accepted as his ideal?

"First She must be beautiful. The heroine of every love story is beautiful. The woman model for every celebrated work of art, on canvass or in marble, is beautiful. Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel. Esther was fair and beautiful, and the king loved Esther. Personal beauty is an element of power, in attracting and pleasing men. But beauty does not consist entirely in feature or form. 'The daughter of the king all glorious is within?' It is inward beauty, shining out through the soul, that captivates. If beauty of character is not cultivated, facial beauty is a quickly fading thing. A woman must be really good, to be really good-looking.

"Second. She must be loving and lovable. If a girl just hates children, and counts old people a bother, and wishes she could get away from home, and thinks she has the worst neighbors that anybody ever had, and has an unkind criticism for almost everybody but herself; it would be an awful calamity for a man to undertake to hold her love and love her in return. But take the girl who is her father's chum, and her mother's comfort, who loves the other members of the family, who is a favorite in school, loved by neighbors, she will always be loved, and will always be realized only when He shall give peace upon the earth, but that it shall be realized only when He shall give peace unto the world. Christ's peace must be the peace of humanity. (By United Press.)

Indianapolis, May 17.—After many postponements, the case of Frank B. Fippen of Terre Haute, charged with passing bad checks, started in criminal court today. Fippen was one of the attorneys for Donn M. Roberts of election conspiracy fame, and he had counted on the deposed mayor as a principal witness in his behalf. At the time the charges were filed, Fippen thought that Roberts and Judge Eli Redman would have been released from Leavenworth prison by this time. They are still in prison, however.

IDEALS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Minister Preaches First of Series on
"The Ideal Young Woman"—
Her Four Graces.

At the United Presbyterian church last evening, Dr. Jamieson spoke on "The Ideal Young Woman." This is the second in a series on "Ideals for Young People," the next one being on "The Ideal Courtship." His text was Prov. 31: 29, "Many daughters have done worthily, but thou excellest them all." He said in part: "Almost every young man becomes willing, at some time in his life, to use those words concerning some one young lady. There are plenty of splendid girls; but there is one, who for him excels all others. It is no weakness on the part of the young man that that is true. God made him that way. It is no astonishing fact when that young lady feels, deep down in her heart, that she could leave father and mother and brother and sister and go to the ends of the earth with that young man. There are facts that give foundation for our stories of fiction; facts that lie at the foundation of our splendid

POISON FATAL TO CHARLES WUEST

Practically Certain Coroner Will Find His Death Was Due to Carbolic Acid he Took.

WHAT AUTOPSY SHOWED

Man Who Attempted Suicide Thursday Evening Dies Sunday Afternoon—Inquest Today.

Charles Wuest, 46 years old, the Broad Ripple truck gardener, who was shot by Mart Clevenger, last Thursday evening after he had taken carbolic acid, died Sunday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at the Grand hotel. Complications arose, believed to have been caused by the carbolic poisoning, and Wuest gradually became worse until it was seen Sunday morning that death was only a matter of a few hours.

An autopsy was held and it was found that the poison had brought on a form of Bright's disease. Coroner Barnett was called and assisted at the autopsy, but his inquest proper was not conducted until this afternoon. It is practically certain the verdict will be that death was caused by poison. It is understood that the wound caused by the shot was not even considered dangerous.

The remains were taken to the Clevenger residence in East Fifth street. It was there that Wuest took the poison after his wife refused to return home with him. Mrs. Wuest was at his bedside almost constantly after he was removed to Grand hotel. He is survived by his widow and three children.

The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

WILL HOLD REUNION AT CINCINNATI ZOO

Christian Sundays Schools of Rushville and Winchester, Ky. To Commemorate Contest

WHICH WAS HELD A YEAR AGO

The Main Street Christian church Sunday school is planning on running an excursion to Cincinnati on Tuesday, June 8 when a joint reunion will be held with the Winchester, Ky. Sunday school. The reunion, which will be held in commemoration of the contest staged one year ago, will be held at the Cincinnati zoo. The transportation committee has secured a special train over the C. H. & D with a fare of $1.25 for the round trip and it is expected that several hundred will make the trip. The Winchester Sunday school will also go to Cincinnati on a special train. The contest with Winchester created great interest and Rushville and Winchester became closely related. Because of this the reunion was planned at a central point and Cincinnati was named.

Zeppelin Which Attacks English Towns is Damaged by Aircraft.

(By United Press.)

London, May 17.—Eight Spanish aviators attacked and seriously damaged the Zeppelin which dropped twenty bombs, injuring three persons and doing slight property damage, in a midnight raid on English coast towns. The battle was high above the clouds. The Zeppelin made off slowly, its tail hanging downward, after an aeroplane had dropped a bomb through it. The bombs were dropped at Ramsgate. The dirigible passed over Margate and Dover without throwing an explosive.

HEALTH SURVEY POSTPONED WEEK

City's Part in Clean-up Week Delayed by Arrival of Stone And Health Board Held Up

PREPARING FOR OILING

The city did not get to complete its part of the clean up movement last week. A carload of stone arrived here late in the week and was necessary to place the stone on the streets in preparation for the oiling. Because of this the city teams were used in hauling the stone and only a small portion of the city was gone over by the wagons in hauling away the trash. The city will continue the work of cleaning this week and it is expected that at least two more days will be required to go over the entire city. Because the city was delayed in the cleaning, the health department will not make the survey until next week.

POLICE ASKED TO SEARCH FOR BOY

Louis G. Stephen, Age Twelve Years, Missing From His Home Here Since Last Friday.

TRUANCY AT SCHOOL CAUSE

Chief of Police Rosencrance today sent out notices to the police of surrounding cities asking them to watch for a runaway Rushville boy, Louis G. Stephen, age twelve and a half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stephen, 638 West Eighth street. The boy disappeared from home last Friday evening and has not been heard from since. He played truant from school last Wednesday afternoon and went to the high school track and field meet at the fair ground. His parents did not learn that he had not been at school until Friday afternoon. The boy knew his parents had found out the truth, and evidently fearing punishment, he left home.

The boy is described as follows: light hair, double crown on head, scar on right side of his head half way between ears and crown, blue eyes, fair complexion; wore light brown soft hat, band darker than hat, brown sweater rather large for him, blue checked waist, mingled gray knee pants, black shoes and stockings.

Bert Ormes today took possession of the City transfer and busses, having purchased them from John Davis.

DIAPASONS HOLD A FINE MEETING

Twelfth Annual Session at Christian Church Sunday Afternoon Pronounced one of Best.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Dr. D. I. Lambert, Who Never Attended One Before, Gives His Impressions as First Visitor.

Probably the most enthusiastic of the twelve annual meetings of the Diapason singing class of Rush county was the one held yesterday afternoon at the Main Street Christian church. The crowd was large and the class entered into the singing of the old-time music with more vim and spirit than in years. The annual meeting of the Diapasons is coming to be an event in the annals of Rush county that is looked forward to with much interest each year as the month of May rolls around.

At the conclusion of the singing yesterday, new officers were elected for the year. Green Thompson of Glenwood was chosen president and Dave McKee of Connersville vice-president. W. L. King was continued as secretary-treasurer and John L. Spurrier of this city was continued as preceptor. The Rev. C. M. Yocum was elected chaplain.

The program was carried out in full with the exception of the late Williams family quartet. Some of the members of the quartet were indisposed and unable to be present. It was also hoped that the class might come here from the Hargrove family, but only a few of them were able to attend. Theophilus Hargrove, of Greenfield, however, was here and assisted Mr. Spurrier in leading the music. Lon Tribbey, assistant preceptor, could not come on account of ill health.

The program was opened with a prayer by the Rev. D. I. Lambert and the Rev. Mr. Yocum read one of the Psalms. Dave McKee, of Connersville who always furnishes the fun for the Diapasons, read some of his original poetry. There was also a violin duet by Janet Dean and Mary Louise Wyatt.

It was the first time that the D. I. Lambert ever heard anything of the sort and it gripped him so that he arose during the time for short talks and expressed his sentiments and gave his impressions as a person who had never attended before.

There was a splendid representative class present, which made the singing the best it has been in years. There were five deaths reported since the last meeting.

The class voted to address a letter of condolence to Thomas J. Humes, because of his illness. Mr. Humes has always been a faithful member of the class, many expressions of regret and sympathy because of his sickness were heard.

WASTE OF WAR REALIZED HERE

In Peace Day Message, Dr. D. I. Lambert Calls Attention to Price United States Has Paid

APPALLED BY EUROPEAN WAR

Failure to Heed God's Program, Sowing Seeds of Peace, is Responsible For The Conflict

Dr. D. I. Lambert gave a Peace Day Message at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, commenting on the war in Europe at some length. He chose for his text "He shall speak unto the nations," from Zachariah, 9:10.

"The old prophet looks out upon the desolations of war," he said, "and realizes nothing but waste and destruction. The cities have been swept away and ruin is on every hand. So it has been throughout all the ages of man. In this land of peace we realize the awful waste because of war. Four hundred thousand dollars a day expended for the maintaining of our navy alone in order that we may have peace. Every second dollar in the world has been appropriated, so they tell us, for the use of war. The great efforts of man in the building of cities, in the accumulation of wealth, is reduced to zero by the generation which follows.

"But far greater is the waste of human life. Twelve thousand acres of young men are in the southland alone, brought down in early manhood by the ravages of our own civil war. Four million men, mostly young men, paid the price of the Napoleonic wars a hundred years ago. If their skulls were piled in one great monument, as they were upon the bloody field of Novara, they would make a pile thirty times as high as our own Washington monument.

"But the greatest disaster often comes in the years which follow. Our own southland still feels the loss of the best blood which it had by the ravages of the civil war. We stand appalled in the face of the awful conflict of today. And we do not wonder that a soldier the other day came to his chaplain and said: 'If you believe in prayer, pray that I may forget the awful scenes I have witnessed or I shall go raving mad.' Someone asked a leading author of fashions in Paris what the fashionable color of this season would be and the reply was that the fashionable color for Europe would be black. But the prophet looks forward and sees the glorious day of peace.

"Old men are sitting, for very age leaning upon their staffs, and the children are playing in the streets of Jerusalem and prosperity is on every hand. And he seeks the explanation of it all and finds it in the peace which has been sent upon the earth. A little later God declares, 'I am sowing the seeds of peace.' That has been and is today God's program for the world.

"The awful scenes of history that have been enacted through warfare have come because God's program has been disregarded—because we have failed to sow the seeds of peace. 'Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.' Europe today is reaping what it has sown. We shall be wise if we shall continue to sow the seeds of peace that shall bring a harvest of prosperity and joy ourselves and the world.

"The prophet not only declares God's plan for the peace of the world to be in all the efforts—the schemes of humanity to bring peace upon earth, but that it shall be

New Cabinet, Formed Aboard Battleship, Assumes Charge Today.

(By United Press.)

Lisbon, May 17.—After two days of anarchy and fierce rioting Portugal was nearly normal today. Dispatches reaching here said that the garrisons in Santarem and several other cities surrendered to the revolutionary forces at midnight. The new cabinet formed aboard a battleship last night assumed control of the government today. Jose Chagas, the new president, is enroute here from Oporto.

KINSLEY TRIAL STARTS WEDNESDAY

Special Venire of Talesmen Is Drawn Today For "Blind Tiger" Case in Circuit Court.

GUILTY IN POLICE COURT

A special venire of twelve men was ordered this morning for use in the trial of Andrew E. Kinsley, charged with the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor, which is expected to start Wednesday. The case against Kinsley has been postponed several times and is expected to be tried this time. Kinsley was the custodian of the Eagles lodge and was charged under the "blind tiger" statute. He was found guilty in police court and the outcome of the trial in the circuit court is creating interest.

The special venire is as follows: J. N. Northam, Jackson; O. T. Lower, Walker; Alva T. Jaunen, Posey; Elmer W. Cadwell, Rushville; John H. Wright, Jackson; F. C. Buell, Rushville; E. A. Farthing, Richland; Dora David, Jackson; E. G. Jones, Jackson; Walter Crull, Washington; Joseph Pike, Richland and J. C. King, Anderson.

RECEIVES NOTE IN FRIENDLY WAY

Ambassador Gerard Reports to Washington That it Will Get Careful Consideration.

REPLY IN A VERY FEW DAYS

By John Edwin Nevin. (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 17.—Germany received the Wilson protest against German submarine warfare as applied to merchant vessels in the most friendly way. Her foreign minister treated Ambassador Gerard with the utmost courtesy and consideration when he read the American position as set forth by the president. He promised that the note would have the most careful situation and that a reply would be made Tuesday or Wednesday.

Ambassador Gerard reported this to Secretary Bryan today. He emphasized the friendliness of his reception. Whether he intimated what he expected the outcome to be, Secretary Bryan did not say.

Unofficial intimations reached here today that the German foreign office intends to expedite its preparation. It is understood that copies of the president's note on submarine warfare are in the hands of the kaiser and his advisers.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Jeff Davis Younger and Susie Garnett.

IS NOT TAKING IT SERIOUSLY

Germany Will Endeavor to Show America What Request to Abandon Submarine Warfare Means

A CRISIS IS NOT EXPECTED

Reply Will Draw Distinct Line Between Gulf Flight and Lusitania Incidents.

(By United Press.)

Berlin, May 16, (Via The Hague) —Germany's reply to the Bryan note will draw a distinct line between the Gulf Flight and the Lusitania incidents. It can be stated on the best authority that so far as the Gulf Flight is concerned the reply will leave nothing to be desired by America. Every possible reparation will be offered in the hope of eliminating this incident.

Neither American citizens here or the German press expect the German reply will be of a nature to precipitate a crisis.

The most interesting fact available is the obvious air of optimism apparently based on the belief that America has not yet but ultimately will get and give consideration to Germany's point of view.

The apparent lack of resentment and the acceptance of America's protestation of friendship is reflected in the press, and is coupled with regret that America does not recognize that Germany's submarine warfare against merchantmen is an act of self defense against England's starvation assault on German noncombatants.

Abandonment by Germany of submarine warfare is not taken seriously here. Instead, Germany will endeavor to show America that the suggestion amounts to asking Germany to abandon her most effective weapon—one which may decide the ultimate issue for her.

The situation here so far as Americans are concerned is calm. The opinion about the foreign office that America without being unfriendly to Germany has been blind to the latitude allowed to the laws of self defense.

TO GIVE MUSICAL COMEDY WEDNESDAY

Miss Helen Scott's High School Music Class Will Present "Miss Bob White" at Auditorium.

FOR BENEFIT OF GYMNASIUM

"Miss Bob White," a musical comedy in 3 acts, will be presented by Miss Helen Scott's high school music class at the auditorium of the Graham Annex Wednesday evening for the benefit of the gymnasium in the new building. The play is based on a bet two millionaires lost to an English duke, which involves two months of tramp life for the millionaires. Harry Schmalzel as "Tra Billion" and Dwight VanOsdol as "Van Million," in their search for food, add much comedy to the production. They finally reach the house of friend "Rod," which part is taken by Forest Jones. The complications furnish a lot of genuine fun.

Mary Louise Poe as "Bob White," Kathleen Hogsett as "Golden Rod" and Marian Scholl as "Miss Autumn" add romance to their experiences. The choruses of Quaker maids, fox hunters colonial dames and A. B. C. girls lend a touch of the opera and adds much to the effectiveness of the production.

The seats will go on sale tomorrow morning at Hargrove & Mullin's. Reserve seat checks are being sold by school children and may be exchanged for seats.

AUSTRIANS CROSS THE ITALIAN LINE

Unconfirmed Report in Rome Causes
Tense Excitement and Immediate Calling of Cabinet.

CROWD ABOUT ROYAL PALACE

(By United Press.)
Rome, May 17.—Rome was tense with excitement today. An unconfirmed rumor said that an Austrian battalion had crossed the Italian frontier. The war office had no confirmation of the report. Premier Salandra is reported to have summoned the cabinet into an immediate session.

A band of Austrian raiders who crossed the Italian frontier were repulsed by a bayonet charge by Italian patrols, according to dispatches reaching here today.

Until an early hour today a crowd estimated at 100,000 surged about the royal palace, the war and foreign offices and the residence of Premier Salandra, cheering wildly for war. The official announcement that King Victor Emmanuel has refused to accept the resignation of Salandra from his cabinet was everywhere interpreted to mean that the king has sanctioned the war program.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:
"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

He Has Proved it.

The Democratic boss of Pennsylvania, A. Mitchell Palmer, who was an unsuccessful candidate for the senate last fall, is now passing into the "fame duck" class. And in passing, since he has been most favorably "remembered" by the president by being appointed a member of the federal court of claims, pauses to observe that the president will be re-nominated in spite of the fact the Baltimore platform declared for a single term.

It is understood that Palmer has a letter from Wilson on this subject.

and that the President feels that the Baltimore convention merely committed the Democrats in Congress to action limiting the presidential incumbency to one term.

Wilson's intellect and sophistry were never better displayed than in the making of such an argument. The Baltimore platform is by no means unintelligible. It says: "We favor a single presidential term and to that end urge the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution, making the President of the United States ineligible for re-election, and we pledge the candidate of this convention to this principle."

On this platform Wilson was elected and the Democrats carried Congress. They have done nothing in Congress to bring about "the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution," and now, Wilson, by means of a letter to Palmer, seeks to avoid the principle to which the Baltimore platform says he is "pledged."

However, discussion of the subject is interesting only as showing Democratic inconsistency; for, in a practical sense, the candidate of the Baltimore convention has already shown himself to be a one-term President.

While the American people will support the president in controversies with foreign countries—and he who will not does not deserve the name—there are those who do not feel obliged to support him in domestic economic matters when they know him to be wrong.

President Wilson's note to the German foreign office finally reached Berlin Saturday evening though it was variously reported by some "guessing" news associations to have been presented Friday morning.

But what could be expected of a ball team that has to recover from the shock of having such a modern plant for its home? Give 'em a little time to get used to their surroundings.

The Democratic slogan "Buy It Now" helped revive business to some extent, but under Republican administration the cry was, "Can't fill your order."

Deserving Democrats again! Bryan's son-in-law, Richard Hargreaves, has annexed a clerkship in the U. S. treasury department which pays him $1,800 a year.

Success is ahead of every man, but laziness never overtakes it. "Hit or miss" is a one sided proposition. There are too many hits.

War? There is no war—it's butchery.

Even the devil stands appalled.

Peace? Yes—in death!

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared by United Press from Records in the State Library)

Archaeological remains found in Indiana indicate that hundreds of years ago this region was inhabited by a people who had advanced in civilization much beyond the savage state.

Artificial mounds have been found in all parts of the state and in these mounds have been unearthed implements of stone, copper and bone. In many places fragments of broken pottery have been discovered buried deep in the artificial mounds of earth. People of this age were called Mound Builders.

Current Comments

The Case of the Lusitania.

(St. Louis Globe Democrat.)

To what extent the German Government may be held accountable for the lives of the Americans destroyed in the sinking of the Lusitania is a matter for the United States Government to determine, after a calm consideration of the ascertained facts in the case and of our rights in the premises. In view of the advertised warnings published by authority of the German embassy, the individual warnings given to many passengers by means of anonymous telegrams, the statements attributed to diplomatic representatives of Germany in this country, there appears to be no doubt that the act was one of official premeditation and deliberate preparation. Undoubtedly, the German defense will be that the Americans taking passage on the Lusitania did so at their own risk, after they had been collectively and personally warned of the danger incurred. Another defense will be based upon the claim that the ship carried munitions of war. The latter would seem to be outside of the question, so far as this country is officially concerned, for the ship and its cargo and the lives of the passengers who were not Americans are subjects for the consideration of Great Britain; but the claim, is substantiated may have an indirect influence upon our own cause.

Yet, granting the force of these defenses, can it be said that Germany or any other nation, is justified in destroying the lives of Americans, men and women and children, who are peaceful passengers upon an unarmed ship? It is a grave question, and its gravity is increased by the fact that it is the culmination of a series of attacks upon American ships, less defensible in a legal scene, than the affairs of the Lusitania. But this is no time and no occasion for jingoism. Profoundly as the people of this country are impressed by the horror of this disaster, we realize that the Lusitania is not another Maine; that the attack was not directed primarily against us, but against England, and that our government should be depended upon to exact such reparation as we may have the right to demand. The pity of it is that no reparation will restore the lives so ruthlessly, and, it seems to us, so needlessly destroyed.

TEMPERANCE TO HAVE BIG PLACE

Will be Most Important Topic of Discussion at State Sunday School Convention.

TO BE HELD IN LOGANSPORT

Sunday Schools Are Lining up as

One of Liquor's Greatest Foes

—Number Against it.

The 5,215 Sunday Scholars of Indiana are concentrating much of their strength in the general cause of temperance in this state, and behind these schools is a total of 612,788 officers, teachers and members. For some years an organized effort has been under way in the schools to push the educational work of temperance and at the coming state convention, to be held in Logansport, June 15-17, temperance will be about the dominating subject for discussion. Nearly 1,000 Indiana Sunday Schools are keeping regular temperance work, especially along the line of obtaining pledges and during the coming year still more attention will be concentrated in the effort to obtain 100,000 signatures to total abstinence pledges.

The Sunday Schools are lining up as one of the greatest foes of liquor, and to them can be traced much of the public sentiment that is throughout the state driving the saloons out of business. And it is proposed by the guiding minds of these schools to continue in the "dry" campaigns until the evils of intemperance are obliterated.

Many of the orators who will be on the Logansport program will give attention to the temperance question. The head-liner of the temperance speakers will be Prof. Chas. Scanlon, of Pittsburg, national superintendent of the temperance department in the Presbyterian church.

On one afternoon of the state convention there will be a special conference on temperance work, at which attention will be given to furthering county and township organization work throughout the State, and in one of the convention's general conferences the program will be given to temperance subjects. Prof. Scanlon will make two addresses during the convention.

POOR PITCHING COSTS ANOTHER

Rushers Drop Poorly Played Game to Hamilton Hoovens by Score of 7 to 5.

HITS LACKING IN PINCHES

New Pitcher Will be Secured Who Will Take Place of the Two Now Carried by Team.

Poor pitching on the part of the Rushville pitchers and in ability to hit good pitching in the pinches cost the Rushers the game yesterday with the Hamilton Hoovens. The score was 7 to 5. It was an uphill battle from the very start as far as Rushville was concerned.

As the game progressed it became more evident that Rushville was in the need of a good pitcher. Homille, who started the game for the Rushers, lasted 5 innings and Hamilton scored five runs off him. Vordenburg then went in and two more runs resulted. Rushville scored first in the fourth inning and twice in the eighth. One more run was pushed over in the ninth. Franz, a southpaw, was on the mound for Hamilton and the Rushers had all kind of trouble connecting safely.

Homille was hit hard, but Hamilton, did not score until the third inning. In this inning Franz was safe when Cordes dropped his fly. Arlinghaus singled over second base. Schirke struck out. Schuab doubled to right field, scoring Franz. Knodle hit safe to the infield and Arlinghaus scored. Hamrick was out, Hasselback to Sandman. Theobald was out, Homille to Sandman.

The Rushers played good ball only in spots. One good inning in the field would be followed by one bad inning and the team behind poor pitching naturally did not show much. Rushville bunched hits off Franz in the fourth and scored two runs. Franz seemed to lose confidence in this frame but came right back and fought the Rushers to a stand-still. In the eighth Rushville had a start toward sewing up the game but only scored two runs. Cordes led off with a double and scored when the left fielder dropped Rohe's drive. Schlenker was walked. Geyer lifted a long fly to left field and Rohe scored. Homille was out to right field and Vordenburg was safe on an error. With two on base Hasselback struck out, for his fourth time during the game. It was simply a case of good pitching for Hamilton against medium class and indifferent pitching for Rushville.

Pick Ups from the Diamond

No one hated the defeat any more than Manager Davidson and the club directors. Steps were taken last night to better conditions. Vordenburg and Homille were released and one good pitcher will be secured. It is believed one pitcher costing the price of two like Vordenburg and Homille will certainly please the fans.

It is planned to get a pitcher the calibre of Al Leake, who pitched here late last year. A pitcher without control makes the entire team look bad and with a man in the box that knows the game the rest of the team surely will look good. The directors are determined to have a winner and work in this direction has already started.

In addition to the pitcher a new right fielder in place of Geyer has been secured. The new outfielder is Bill Brientein. He formerly managed a team in the southern league and has been playing this season for the All-Pros at Cincinnati. When Rohe left this team to play with Rushville Brientein

wanted to come to and was taken on by Rushville.

Charles Todd, a local boy played right field for the Hoovens. Todd played a nice game. He got a three base hit his first time up and his other hit was a fluke. It took a bad bound and went over Schlenker's head when it hit a rough place on the diamond. Todd also accepted two chances in the field.

Jack England umpired a nice game. He had no trouble with the players and the fans were greatly pleased with his work. England should make good in the Indiana State league.

It was one, two, three for Rushville for three innings. Goodfellow was the first to get on base and he was hit by Franz.

The crowd was pretty slim but should improve when the fans are shown that Rushville intends to have a winner. As the team now stands with the addition to the outfield a new pitcher should produce the desired results.

Mrs. Ione Brown Gets Divorce And Marries Another Brown

Mrs. Ione Brown was married Saturday afternoon but failed to change her name. She married Charles O. Brown. Mrs. Brown was granted a divorce from Clifton Brown this term of court by Judge Sparks and paid the costs Saturday just before becoming the wife of Charles Brown. The divorce decree was not entered until the costs were paid and this was done just a short time before she appeared with Charles O. Brown. Her second husband is said to be no relation to her first. The marriage issued to the Browns was the first issued since April 28 and was the first granted during the month of May.

STAGE WORK IS NOT HELP TO HIM

New York Fight Fans Rarely Mention Willard's Name And he is Not Popular

MUST SOON FIGHT AGAIN

Is Not a Howling Success Behind Footlights—no One in Sight Who Can Whip Him.

BY IAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)
New York, May 17.—As far as New York is concerned Jess Willard has disappeared from the spotlight. Rarely is his name mentioned by the general public and even the fight fans have many other topics to argue about than the man who humbled the giant black man at Havana.

No where in fight circles, is heard the heated discussions over his merits and defeats as was the situation some years back when champions of other days held the limelight. Willard is even creating less discussion than did Johnson when he won the title from Jefferies. Local ring stars are furnishing more excitement than the champion heavyweight.

How much Jess' stage work has dampened his popularity is impossible to calculate, but not a few fight bugs would rather see the giant cowboy in the ring than behind the footlights. Comparatively few people have seen Jess in action and that is what the followers of the fistie sport desire above everything else. Even if they cannot see him in action they like to read about him.

There is not much meat in the despatches about Willard for the ring side followers. No one would deny the champ his just share of the little iron men, for his feat in defeating Johnson is worthy of a substantial reward. But between one night stands the big white champ might take a night off now and then and display his abilities to a fight hungry public.

And perhaps the unpopularity of Willard as a stage favorite will force him into the ring again sooner than he expected. There is little doubt that Willard is not making a howling success of his circus stunt on the footboards. He is not as well adapted to that kind of pastime as some former boxer-actors were. And if press reports can be credited Jess himself cares little for the glare of the footlights. He wants the limelight but the reflection bores him.

A return to the ring would hardly endanger Jess' newly won title. No one is within several years of besting him in a fistie argument. At least not from surface appearance. Some one may develop as rapidly as Jess himself did and humble the western fight king, but the chance of this occurring is remote. Jess had been plugging at the boxing game for four or five years before he accomplished the "white hope" dream of the ring-side sports.

The champion is expected to fight about every second week. The public, thinks of him as a fighting man and to hold the affection of the fight fans he must fulfil their expectations. That attitude accounted for Jefferies great popularity. Jefferies wanted to fight every man big enough to stand up to him. Stage work should be a by product of a champions real work.

MASONS GATHER.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 17.—With all the pomp of Masonry the Golden Jubilee of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite in Indiana, which will continue for a number of days, started today. Classes in Masonry for the past half century will hold reunions throughout the week. At the mammoth coliseum at the state fair ground probably the largest banquet ever served in Indiana will be attended by 5,000 Masons. Many degrees will be conferred at the jubilee reunion. Masons of national note are expected here.

A Simple Constipation Remedy—Try It

For quick, positive relief from constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, inactive liver, bad breath, and all the ills that follow them nothing as yet has been found to quite equal that old, time-tried compound of may-apple root, aloes and jalap.

Recognized as one of the standard remedies, physicians daily prescribe it, many preferring it to all others, and especially calomel. They like it because, being purely vegetable, it's not nearly as harsh as calomel; it never gripes; is never followed by any of the dangerous after-effects that so often result from the use of calomel.

This standard remedy, ready-prepared, may now be had under the name of Santalax Laxative Tablets. Be sure you get the original Santalax Laxatives, put up in the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. In this form it is much more convenient and easier to take than in the old-fashioned powder or capsule form—cheaper, too; a 10c box of Santalax should last one several weeks. A physician's sample package (4 doses) free to any one answering this advertisement. The Santalax Remedies Co., 801 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

—Mrs. C. H. GARFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."

CONDUCTS HARD FIGHT ON DOPES

New York is Slowly But Surely Getting Best of Users of Drugs—Passes New Laws.

VICTIMS SENT TO A FARM

Police Department Doing Effective Work in Rounding up Violators—Work Explained.

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK.
(Written for United Press.)

New York, May 17.—In an endeavor to make New York one of the most healthful cities in the United States, Father Knickerbocker is conducting a finish fight on the drug fiends within his gates. And to get at the root of the evil which is slowly sapping the strength of some of its weak willed citizens the city has delegated the work of stamping out this deadly habit to the Police Department.

Aided by laws, both state and national, the Police officials who have this special work in charge are making big strides toward ridding the city of the users of drugs by arresting them and putting them in hospitals for treatment. The Harrison law, passed by the last Congress has been a big help in catching "runners" of cocaine and heroin who formerly could pass unmolested from one state to another with big quantities of "dope." Under the new law this is prohibited and while it does not assist the New York police department in apprehending people, outside of the city it makes the work of the "runners" more dangerous. Before the Harrison law became effective much of the drugs used in New York City were bought in Newark and Philadelphia and conveyed into New York by automobile or even by a man carrying a suitcase on a train.

And the Block bill, passed by the Albany legislature, has materially aided the police in putting the sellers of "coke" and "snow" behind prison bars. A bill recently signed by Gov. Whitman will allow magistrates to send victims of drugs to a state farm, after release from city hospitals, where they can get well and recover their strength and manhood. For, when a man is addicted to the use of cocaine the treatment he receives in a hospital is only part of the fight he has to make to recover himself entirely. Drug users are usually dependent and easily depressed and as soon as some misfortune overtakes them they are liable to resort to a sniff of cocaine to brace them up.

The record of the police department in a little over a year shows that results are being obtained. In 1913 only about 500 arrests were made for this offense. But in 1914 over 2000 people were picked up by the police and plain clothesmen and so far this year they have been catching them at the rate of 2500 a year.

A prominent police official, in

Congested Kidneys Relieved in Rushville

Tells, in Open Letter, How This Result Was Accomplished.

Mr. Jacob Dunwoody of 603 West Ninth street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Some few months ago I noticed my kidneys were not acting properly. They were off in action and bothered me a great deal at night. I would have to get up frequently. I suffered with the backache continually and could not find relief. At last I decided to try Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription. Others had told me that they would give me quick relief. I got a box and after taking only a few I noticed an improvement. My kidneys have not given me a bit of trouble now for a long time and the backache has left me entirely. Others will find quick relief in Lloyd's, I am sure."

speaking of the crusade against the drug evil, said recently that he is convinced the police department is gradually stamping out the habit, for it is getting harder and harder to find people addicted to the use of drugs. This is because a majority of the worse type of drug fiends are now in hospitals and city institutions receiving treatment.

This police officer explained how they worked to catch drug fiends. When a street peddler, the man who sells the drug to the victims, is caught that cuts off all his customers Unless they can establish new "connections" within forty-eight hours they must appeal for help, as they can not stand the strain of being without drugs. And when a big wholesaler of drugs is captured that cuts off the supply of a great many street peddlers, which in turn deprives all the patrons of these street men of cocaine and heroin. And it is the sellers of drugs the police are particularly anxious to catch for they can put them in jail if the evidence is sufficiently strong. When a drug fiend is caught the police treat him as a sick person, for they know it is impossible for him to break himself of the habit.

But in many cases it is extremely difficult to obtain evidence that will hold in a court of law. This is because of the shrewd methods used by the street peddlers in selling their illegal wares. A drug fiend will pay the peddler the money and then will receive instructions to walk half a block down the street and pick up a cigarette box lying in the gutter. In the box the victim finds a "deck" of cocaine. Another way practiced to evade the law is for a peddler to tell the buyer of the drug to walk down the street until he sees a girl with a muff. When he passes the girl she slips him a little paper package from inside her muff and for a few hours the victim is happy. As soon as the effect of the "dope" wears off he becomes dull and depressed again and the craving for more drives him to the peddler.

If the drug fiend has no money he is made desperate and is forced to steal to obtain funds for the dope. This, the police department believes, accounts for most of the petty robberies that occur all over the city. If the use of deadly drugs can be stopped, or practically eliminated, it is thought petty crime will be lessened by fifty per cent.

In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

G. Priest, 223 West Third street, Rushville, says: "For several years I had kidney trouble, which came on by spells. The complaint started with a dull pain just over my kidneys, then I became weak and dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and were so highly recommended that I got a supply at Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store. They proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever tried and in a short time, my kidneys were normal."

(Statement given June 13, 1907.)

Over five years later, Mr. Priest said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills when in need of a kidney tonic and the results are always satisfactory."

OBITUARY.

Edith B. Smith, eldest daughter of W. H. and Cora A. McMillin was born in Union township, Rush county, July 12th, 1886.

Her childhood days and youth were spent in the immediate vicinity of her birth, receiving her schooling in the public schools at Ging Station. As a child she possessed a loving disposition, making many warm friends among her playmates and teachers. At the age of thirteen she confessed her faith in the Savior, uniting with the Christian church at Plum Creek.

On December 28th, 1904 she was united in marriage to Walter E. Smith, with whom she removed to Rushville, the place selected by the new couple for their temporal home. This union has been a successful one, each remaining true and faithful to the other until separated by the Great Reaper.

Upon her removal to Rushville, she transferred her church membership to the Main Street Christian church.

Edith, being deprived of the most sublime privilege in this world, that of being the mother of a little one of her own flesh and blood, yet she was truly a mother to any and all of the little ones with whom it was her privilege to come in contact. Indeed she possessed the characteristic of mother love developed to a degree far above the average. Rarely was she seen, if at all possible, except in charge of some little child. She certainly obeyed the precepts of the blessed Master—"Suffer the little children and forbid them not to come unto Me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Of course, she was not perfect. There has never been but One such, but it does seem that she was capable more than the ordinary person of looking upon the bright side of life.

Her greatest happiness seemed to be achieved in doing something for others and helping them to enjoy more of the good things of this world.

During her last illness everything possible from kind hands, loving hearts and medical skill, was rendered, but the Grim Reaper had made his advent and about ten o'clock p. m. Monday, April 12th, her spirit took its flight. "Leaving its outgrown shell by life's unrelenting sea."

This is a forcible reminder to us that the Death Angel is no respecter of persons. Edith, the very picture of health and just in the bloom of life, and yet in less than a fortnight she had passed into the Great Beyond.

Now as we meditate upon this beautiful life that has faded without scarcely any warning, it gives such deep heart-aches and sorrow and sadness, but may we not look through this deep vale of tears and glean a message to the loved ones left behind: Methinks I can see Edith over there on the golden shore, standing at the wharf with outstretched arms and hear her sweet voice calling to husband, parents, sisters and all of the vast host of her relatives and friends, telling them to so live that when their summons comes to cross the Great Divide, they may be able to board the old ship of Zion and land safely in the harbor, there to meet her in a final embrace for a grand family reunion, not for a single day but for all eternity.

How sublime to contemplate such a meeting as that and how forcibly should the call to duty present itself to each of us now while it is called today.

Now we see through a glass dimly, but then face to face, now we know only in part, but then we shall know even as also we are known.

Thou com'st not from the hush and shadow

To meet us, but to thee we come; With thee we never can be strangers, And where thou art must still be home.

BUTLER SPEAKS AT BALTIMORE

Secretary of Indiana Board of Charities Addresses National Conference of Charities

URGES SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

Declares That One Out of Every 500 Hundred Were Feeble-minded And Gives Interesting Statistics

(By United Press.)

Baltimore, Md., May 17.—Saying the most conservative estimates place the ratio of feeble-minded in this country at one to every five hundred persons, Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Indiana board of state charities today concluded that 200,000 persons feeble-minded are responsible for an overwhelming proportion of the crime and vice in America. He asked that scientific research be brought to bear on the problem of the feeble-minded that menace may be handled with greater knowledge and skill. He spoke this morning before the National Conference of Charities.

Some of the vices and crimes with which the feeble-minded have to do were outlined as follows:—

"The mental defects enter largely into the problem of commercialized vice, being probably the most important individual cause of the great evil. Many competent judges estimate that fifty persons of the prostitutes are mentally abnormal.

"Of 374 men examined at the Indiana State prison, 90 or 24 percent gave a personal history of mental defect and 111 or 29 percent had feeble-mindedness in the family history.

"Some say that from seventy to ninety percent of prisoners are feeble-minded.

"Feeble-mindedness is a prominent factor in pauperism. In Indiana 26.9 percent of the poor asylums population is classed as feeble-minded, in Missouri fifty percent.

"The feeble-minded boy or girl unrestrained in a community particularly in a town, threatens the home. A single feeble-minded girl among a group of young boys becomes a plague spot, the consequences of which are frightful. The spread of venereal disease by mental defectives is well known."

Mr. Butler emphasized that feeble-mindedness is inherited. "For example" he said "there are two children in the School for Feeble-Minded Youth at Fort Wayne, members of a degenerate family whose history is one of crime and immorality, alcoholism, disease, mental defectiveness, illegitimacy and pauperism. We have information more or less extensive regarding 477 members of this family, representing seven generations."

Concerning the prevalence of feeble-mindedness among prostitutes, Mr. Butler said—"Of three hundred prostitutes treated on in a recent report fifty-one were feeble-minded. All doubtful cases were reported as normal. Not more than six of the entire number seemed to have really good minds.

"It is highly probable that at least 50 percent of the inmates of our almshouses are feeble-minded. One study of the mentality of truants shows upwards of 80 percent of them feeble-minded. Many different studies show from 46 to 89 percent of reformatory inmates to be feeble-minded. If these statements should be taken at only half their value, they still show a condition important enough to need action." Mr. Butler concluded by saying:—

"These things we believe. The evidence gathered shows they are probably understated. They serve as a basis for our work. They offer a just cause for our appeal to the public. But of the highest importance is more facts, greater knowledge, scientific research. With a modification of emphasis this is as true of the insane and epileptic as of the feeble-minded.

"When we view the number of the feeble-minded, their fecundity, their lack of control, the menace they are, the degradation they cause the degen-

BIG REDUCTION IN FIRE LOSSES

Total Damage in State For First Four Months $1,873,353 as Against $2,868,156.

FOR SAME PERIOD IN 1914

Even Under These Circumstances Number of Alarms is in Excess. of Those in 1914.

Figures compiled in the State Fire Marshal's department for four months of the present year show a greatly reduced fire loss in comparison with the loss during a similar period of 1914. Up to May 1st the Indiana fire loss was $1,873,353, as against $2,868,156 for the first four months of last year. The number of alarms for 1915 is slightly in excess of that of 1914, the reports showing 2,909 this year and 2,781 in 1914.

The present year has not been marked by extensive and costly conflagrations as was the first quarter of 1914. An automobile factory fire in Indianapolis, entailing $100,000 loss, was the only large fire in the state. The great majority of fires were blazes caused by sparks from engines or chimneys and the losses were nominal.

The January losses in Indiana proved to be particularly small this year, the figures showing the total loss $336,789, being approximately $500,000 less than in January of 1914.

The total loss in Indiana in 1914 was almost $8,000,000, a mark which it is hoped the state will not again equal. The following table for one-third of the present year indicates the hope will not be a vain one:

	No. Losses	Loss
January	611	$336,789
February	647	437,381
March	837	488,256
April	814	610,927
Total	2,909	$1,873,353

cracy the perpetuate, the suffering the misery and crime they spread—these are the burdens we must bear. We cannot escape. We should bear it aright. We need more strength, more wisdom, more help, more light.

REVIEWS LAND PARADE FIRST

President Wilson in New York City For Big Naval Celebration Scheduled For Two Days

ATLANTIC FLEET TAKES PART

Water Carnival in Connection Expected to be Wonderful Sight—Returns Wednesday

(By United Press.)

New York, May 17.—President Wilson, accompanied by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, his private secretary Joseph Tumulty and other Washington officials left the President's yacht Mayflower, at 8:30 this morning to review a land parade. The Mayflower arrived at New York yesterday. This is the first event in the big naval celebration scheduled for the next two days.

On the reviewing stand, before the Public Library on Fifth avenue, the President was met by Mayor Mitchell and other city officials. After reviewing the officers and jacksies of the Atlantic fleet the Presidential party returned to the Mayflower. At 3:30 this afternoon the Mayflower made a tour of the fleet at anchor in the Hudson river.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock, the President will dine on board the battleship Wyoming, with Secretary Daniels and the other Cabinet members, Mr. Tumulty, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Admiral Fletcher, commanding the fleet; commanders of the four divisions, seventeen captains of battleships, Rear Admiral Fisher, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy yard, and other naval officers.

At 8:30 o'clock, the big water carnival in connection with fleet festivities, will be held in the North River. The Mayflower is anchored at 72d street, and the water carnival, "fleet" made up of hundreds of boats and pleasure craft, will assemble at 125th street and pass down the river beside the fleet until it reaches the Mayflower, where it will turn back up the river, passing again beside the battleships. The searchlight display during the carnival promises to be wonderful.

Tomorrow the President will review the entire fleet as it passes out to sea. Then the Mayflower will return to Washington.

Selling Is MORE than Trading Stock for Money!

Selling is part of the scheme of business. Most anyone can sell once, but selling so you can create permanent customers is selling successfully. That is why we carry the large stock of buggies we have on our sample floor for prospective customers or purchasers to make their selections from. They don't have to take something they don't want, as we carry every style of buggy that there is a demand for. Then after the customer has made his selection from our stock we tell him exactly what the buggy is and it has to be just as we represent it or we make it that way. The customer takes no chances. He is sure to get just what he pays for. ONE sale reduces itself to a confidence game unless the buyer is perfectly satisfied. Satisfaction sends a customer away with a smile that won't come off. That is why our buggy business has grown. We have found out how to hold customers after we get them and every satisfied customer is bound to bring a new customer sooner or later. Right now our stock of buggies is complete and if you are needing a buggy come in and make your selection. We have the style you want and we would be glad to have you for one of our satisfied customers. We know you will be glad when you give us your vehicle business, so do it now.

Terre Haute Lawyer Faces Charge of Passing Bad Checks.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, May 17.—After many postponements, the case of Frank B. Fippen of Terre Haute, charged with passing bad checks, started in criminal court today. Fippen was one of the attorneys for Donn M. Roberts of election conspiracy fame, and he had counted on the deposed mayor as a principal witness in his behalf. At the time the charges were filed, Fippen thought that Roberts and Judge Eli Redman would have been released from Leavenworth prison by this time. They are still in prison, however.

TO LOOK GOOD, MUST BE GOOD

Dr. A. W. Jamieson Says Beauty, Unless it is Inward and Shines Through Soul, Fades.

IDEALS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Minister Preaches First of Series on "The Ideal Young Woman"—Her Four Graces.

At the United Presbyterian church last evening, Dr. Jamieson spoke on "The Ideal Young Woman." This is the second in a series on "Ideals for Young People," the next one being on "The Ideal Courtship." His text was Prov. 31: 29, "Many daughters have done worthily, but thou excellest them all." He said in part: "Almost every young man becomes willing, at some time in his life, to use those words concerning some one young lady. There are plenty of splendid girls; but there is one, who for him excels all others. It is no weakness on the part of the young man that that is true. God made him that way. It is no astonishing fact when that young lady feels, deep down in her heart, that she could leave father and mother and brother and sister and go to the ends of the earth with that young man. There are facts that give foundation for our stories of fiction; facts that lie at the foundation of our splendid homes; facts that explain why God gave us the marriage covenant. But when a worthy young man fixes his choice on a certain definite young woman, whom he is willing to exalt in his life, above every other, he uses his conscience, his reason, his judgment, as well as his eyes and his emotions. She must measure up to a certain standard, be the embodiment of certain ideals. What are some of the things that a worthy young man counts essential in the young woman who is to be accepted as his ideal?

"First She must be beautiful. The heroine of every love story is beautiful. The woman model for every celebrated work of art, on canvass or in marble, is beautiful. Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel. Esther was fair and beautiful, and the king loved Esther. Personal beauty is an element of power, in attracting and pleasing men. But beauty does not consist entirely in feature or form. 'The daughter of the king all glorious is within.' It is inward beauty, shining out through the soul, that captivates. If beauty of character is not cultivated, facial beauty is a quickly fading thing. A woman must be really good, to be really good-looking.

"Second. She must be loving and lovable. If a girl just hates children, and counts old people a bother, and wishes she could get away from home, and thinks she has the worst neighbors that anybody ever had, and has an unkind criticism for almost everybody but herself; it would be an awful calamity for a man to undertake to hold her love and love her in return. But take the girl who is her father's chum, and her mother's comfort, who loves the other members of the family, who is a favorite in school, loved by neighbors, she will always be loved, and will always be loving. It takes mutual love to make a happy home. Outward conditions are largely a reflection of inner conditions. The young woman who would make an ideal life companion, loves her friends and inspires them with a love for herself.

"Third. She must be capable as a home-maker. A man can build a house; he cannot make a home.

takes a woman's touch, a woman's taste, a woman's grace to make a home. The worthy young man thinks of his ideal, as reigning within his home; and he wants a well-kept home. This does not mean that she shall not be interested in many things outside of the home. Woman's sphere is broadening, as she is rising with the progress of Christianity. In many states she is now recognized as a citizen, and no longer in the class of incapables of undersirables, on election day. She is privileged to receive the same education that the young man receives. Every honorable employment is open to her. But the home is woman's peculiar sphere. If she fails there, she is a failure, so far as a worthy man's ideal is concerned. Music, literary culture, ability to cook, and to sew, many accomplishments and attainments add to a woman's skill as a home-maker, while cleanliness and refinement are recognized in the very atmosphere of the home. If a woman's club helps in the understanding and solving of home problems, let her be grateful for the club. If it interferes, let the club be sacrificed, while she does her best for the home. A woman's beauty and a woman's love are to exert their greatest charm within the sacred walls of her own home.

"Fourth. She must abound in the graces of Christian character. I make no apology for the man who is not a Christian; but many an unchristian man wants a Christian wife and would have no other. Conversion means salvation, eternal life, for the woman as for the man. Sin mars and degrades, Christian character is ennobling, uplifting. But the characteristic graces of womanhood, are peculiarly developed by the spirit of Christ in the heart. Knowing this, the worthy young man demands that the ideal of his heart be a woman, whose womanhood, physical, mental, social, moral, spiritual, be beautified in holiness."
